Chancery Causes: M. O. Garrison vs. A. J. Garrison

Bailey, Doss

CA-Divorce

To the Hon. H. A. W. Shen, Judge of the Circuit Court For Lee County, Virginia:

Humbly complaining, your oratrix M. D. Garrison would show unto the Court; that she is now a citizen of this state, and has been such for a period of more than twelve months prior to the institution of this suit; that on the day of 189, she was married to one A. J. Garrison, and that to them were born two girls both of whom are now living, the elder, Flora D. Garrison is now four years old, the younger ^{Rosa} ~~Beth~~ Garrison is two $\frac{1}{2}$ years old; both living with your oratrix; that she and her husband lived together several years; but that on the day of 1898, he deserted and abandoned your oratrix without cause or valid excuse; that he has wilfully lived apart from, and abandoned her for a period of more than three years; that during that period he has made no provision for the support of her and her two little girls, nor has he contributed any thing toward her and the children's maintenances: that he has lived in dissipation and with lewd women during the last ~~five~~ ^{three} years, and your oratrix avers that he is not morally fit to be entrusted with the care and education of her two said little girls:

And the object of this suit is to obtain a decree dissolving and annulling the bonds of matrimony now existing between your oratrix and the said A. J. Garrison, and to restrain and inhibit the said A. J. Garrison from exercising any authority or control over the persons of the said and Garrison.

Forasmuch therefore as your oratrix is remediless in the premises, save in a court of equity; she prays that the said A. J. Garrison may be made a defendant to this bill, and be required to answer the same, but not on oath, the same being hereby waived; that he be restrained and enjoined from interfering with or in any way molesting her said two children, who are well ~~born~~ your oratrix; that your oratrix may be divorced from the said A. J. Garrison a vinculo matrimonii; that process issue; that all proper orders and decrees may be made; and that all such other, further and general relief may be afforded your oratrix as may be just and right in the premises.
And your oratrix will ever pray etc.
